West Newton Mar 29/75

My dear Mr. Garrison.

Our sincere thanks are due & are for the letter of sympathy and cheer.

Your words were very grateful tears especially from your aged & loved mother.

What conflicts are there now which are calculated to stir the philanthropic & heroic as that of the Anti-slavery? and develop the sturdy character wh. was & is so true of all the "Old Guard"? I sometimes

Hs.A.1.2 v.38, p.19A
v38,p19(a)

and Mrs. Garrison.

Very truly

N. L. Allen.

fear that our young
men & women of today
have too little to do for this and yet, there are many reforms which call for all the enthusiasm and
pluck which anyone possesses,
Peace, Education, others,

By the enclosed you will see I took the liberty of putting a part of your excellent & kind tribute in print that his friends & neighbors of Norfolk Co.
could see it.

We all unite in the best wishes for yourself
Ms.A.1.2 V.38, p.19A